Veteran By-Name-List

The Veteran By-Name-List (BNL) is an active list of veterans that are currently experiencing homelessness in Oakland County. The BNL is updated on a weekly basis to track the status of clients that are looking for housing, moved into a unit, or are deactivated. Clients who are referred to the list are connected with agencies that provide housing assistance to veterans.

Homeless Veterans by Last 6 Months

Oakland County has a variety of Veteran-specific housing projects available to eligible participants. This includes Rapid Rehousing (RRH) and Prevention through Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) and Michigan State Housing Development Authority (MSHDA). Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) is also available through Veteran Affairs Supportive Housing (VASH) vouchers, CoC PSH and Housing Choice Vouchers (HCV). Each project has specific eligibility criteria that the Taskforce reviews when assigning placements during the BNL meetings.
